$3,500,000 FOR COUNTY ROADS

Voters of Los Angeles County to Decide Bond Issue on Thirtieth Day of July

MANY IMPROVED ROADS FOR GLENDALE

Proposed Improvements Form Regular Network Around and Through Glendale—One of Greatest Importance to Our City

ON the 30th day of July, the voters of Los Angeles county will decide one of the greatest issues that has ever come before this county; namely, the voting of $3,500,000 bonds for the improvement of roads in this county. The first steps toward the organization of a campaign in the interests of the proposed bond issue were taken this week.

That this probable improvement has thus far advanced is mainly due to the efforts of the Good Roads Association of Los Angeles county, which association was the first to undertake the work of obtaining money for the betterment of the county thoroughfares. This association was strongly represented before the legislature when the measure was successfully enacted which provided for the organization of the Los Angeles County Highway Commission.

Thus far the following names have been chosen to act as a promotion committee which will conduct the coming campaign favoring the bond issue:

S. A. Butler, president of the association; F. W. Blanchard, vice-president, and A. P. Fleming, secretary, all of Los Angeles will be on the committee in addition to George H. Bixby and Martin C. Marsh of the commission. Mr. Daggett hails from Pasadena and others from there will be Captain C. D. Manning, of the Board of Supervisors, and several whose names have not been made public. Thomas Barley and Harry Roundollar of Long Beach are included, also P. J. Beveridge of Hollywood, T. J. Walker of San Fernando, and George D. Whitcomb of Glendora. Mr. Daggett, who will probably be elected head of the promotion committe, will select the remainder of the committee during the next few days.

The campaign includes the meeting with Boards of Trade, Chambers of Commerce and other commercial and civic bodies in the county, which will be asked to nominate committeemen in their localities to work in the interests of the issue until the bond election is held.

The recommendation made by the commission for the improvement of the San Fernando road, through Chatsworth Park and Santa Susana Pass was not altogether pleasantly received. Those in favor of the improvement of the old El Camino Real take exception to the commission's recommendation, claiming that the Calabasas or El Camino road is shorter by fifteen miles from Ocean Park, Santa Monica, Sawtelle and Hollywood to Ventura and the north.

Notwithstanding the protests received, the San Fernando road route will probably be selected by the committee as it will mean a saving to the county of between $175,000 and $200,000; and besides, if this route is chosen, the highway commissioners of Ventura county have promised that they will meet this road in connection with the highway to Santa Barbara.

It is thought by the officials that three or four months will be required to dispose of the bonds and that actual work will be begun on the highways by January 1st.

The commission states that the roads, of which there are approximately 5000 miles in this county, are in fairly good condition, considering that most of them are ordinary dirt roads.

It has been stated that the revenue from the sale of the bonds has been estimated, aside from actual operating expenses for offices, salaries for the commission and its force, at $553,873 for grading, $481,911 for bridges and culverts and $2,464,216 for paving.

WILL MOVE TO GLENDALE.

Mr. and Mrs. Almo R. Taylor have sold their residence. Mr. Taylor is building in Glendale and expects to move there with his family the last of this month. The salt air climate does not agree with his health and he prefers the higher elevation and mountainous region for a permanent residence and shorter distance to his place of business in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor have been residents of Sawtelle three years and have a wide circle of friends who will regret their departure. Both have taken an active part in church and musical affairs. Mr. Taylor is a fine soloist and when he first located in Sawtelle sang in the First Baptist Church of which his father, Rev. Geo. Taylor, is pastor. He has been for some time soloist in the First Presbyterian church in Los Angeles. He is also a skillful player on the claironette, and possesses a fine instrument which was purchased for him many years ago in Vienna, Austria, by his father.—Veteran Enterprise.

BAPTIST CHURCH CALLS AS PASTOR, REV. J. F. MOODY.

At a meeting of the Calvary Baptist church on July 6th, the vote was made unanimous to call as pastor Rev. J. F. Moody, who has for many years been well known in Southern California. On next Sunday Mrs. J. S. Norvell is expected to again conduct the services, both morning and evening. All are welcomed. Seats free.

Mr. Charles F. Foehlinger of Whittier, has bought the old Taylor place, North Glendale. This is a fine 20-acre property and Mr. Foehlinger is pleased with his purchase and will probably build in the near future. Mr. McNish who has been occupying the property lately has gone to the mountains for his health.

In a lively baseball game on the Fourth between the Presbyterians and the Methodists, played on the High School grounds, the Presbyterians won by a score of 7 to 4. After the game was ended, the players and friends adjourned to Verdugo Canyon where the balance of the day was spent. Between refreshments and reminiscences (explaining how it happened) the day passed pleasantly.

The second musical service at St. Mark's church took place last Sunday evening and was much enjoyed by a large congregation, which joined heartily in singing the hymns, all well known and favorites. The anthem was Woodward's beautiful setting of "The Radiant Morn," the magnificat by Tours and the Nunc Dimittus by Goss. A delightful offertory solo, "Come Unto Me," was sung by Mrs. W. C. Fraley.

Miss Adalene Wheeler, daughter of Mrs. J. N. Witham of Seventh street, arrived in Glendale last week and will be the house guest of Mrs. Witham for some time. She is accompanied by her friend, Miss Whitney. Both have been employed for some time past as teachers in the school established by Katherine Tingley at Santiago, Cuba. She is one of a party chaperoned by Mrs. Valentine, consisting of the Misses McPeak, Loraine, Mitchell, Alma Stone, Margaret Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Simon, with two children and a maid. The party are the guests of John Valentine who is employed by the Arrowhead Reservoir and Power Company. Mr. Simon contributes one burro each for the girls of the party for use on the trip.

The younger social set of the valley who are happiest when "tripping the light fantastic" certainly enjoyed the splendid party given them on the Fourth at the Country Club house by Mrs. E. W. Richardson and her daughter, Eula, of Tropico, and Mrs. Charles Peckham and Mrs. Alexander Mitchell who furnished the latest dance music. Mrs. F. L. Church assisted in making the young people happy, as did also Mrs. Collins of Tropico, Mrs. Ryan and others. Punch was served in the cool shade of the north verandah. About sixty were present. Souvenirs were tiny silk flags.

Of the many picnic parties enjoying the Fourth in the cool of the canyons none were happier than a party of fifty who set out early in autos and hayricks, for Griffith Park. If any in the gay company were not related, they claimed very close friendship with those who were, and so the affair has passed into history as a sort of family reunion, with a patriotic setting. There were college, and fraternity songs, guitar and mandolin accompaniment. A feast at noon, foothill rambles, an early supper, stories and fireworks were some of the pleasures enjoyed.

A party of forty young people "chartered" two hayricks on the Fourth and thereon were noisily and gloriously conveyed to the cool recesses of lovely Verdugo Park, where they immediately proceeded to celebrate according to their special Fourth of July standard.

The program started off well with a baseball contest between the "Methodists" and "Presbyterians." The latter proved winners, the former putting up the required five gallons of ice cream, a most acceptable accessory to the good dinner provided by the girls. Later there were running and jumping contests and games, with cannon cracker and tin horn accompaniment.

The Chautauqua management at Venice has invited the Federated Women's Clubs to assume entire charge of the day on Tuesday, the 14th, and this under the supervision of the strong and capable district president, Mrs. Florence Collins, who will open the program at exactly 9:30.

Mrs. R. J. Waters, district vice-president, has arranged for the day, the participation of at least twenty representatives of various prominent clubs. The morning will be devoted to patriotic topics and social service and the afternoon to educational matters.

In the evening there will be a grand reception, with Mrs. Porter in the receiving line, assisted by Mrs. Waters, Mrs. Rundel, Mrs. Stevens, and many other very prominent and well-known club women.

Members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club are urged to go and will meet at the Fourth street depot at 7:50 in order to be there on time. Any interested are invited to go.

MILLER-RAE.

The City Marshal Married.

The popular city marshal, Mr. Harry Miller, redeemed one of his pre-election promises on Wednesday by marrying Miss Rae of East Ninth street. Some doubts as to the stability of his residence among us being expressed before he was nominated, the matter was put to rest by the statement that he contemplated matrimony in the near future.

About a dozen of the most intimate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Donahue, Mr. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. Murdock, Miss Randall and Miss Martin of Los Angeles, and Mr. Morris Andrews.

The ceremony was in the hands of Dr. Ward of the Presbyterian church and took place upon the west porch. Miss Rae was very charming in a beautiful gown of white and the groom showed the same resolute bearing as when in discharge of his official duties. The brother of the bride, Mr. James Rae, and Miss Martin supported the bridal pair.

The ceremony was followed by refreshments and a delightful social time.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller will occupy a part of the house of Mr. Green on Everett street on their return from a short trip.

GLENDALE, CAL., JULY 11, 1908

Consolidation is the order of the day. Watch us grow.

* * *

Travelers who come to us occasionally from all directions, agree in the opinion that at present Glendale is prospering and growing faster than any place of equal size in the county.

* * *

It is a dull day when we don't have a fire or a runaway.

* * *

No, we do not propose to start a daily edition—yet. A first-class weekly is the present limit of our ambition.

* * *

Nine miles of streets paved by the petrolithic process during the past year, is Glendale's record. Not all of the work is completed, but the uncompleted portions are well under way.

* * *

The city attorney has been instructed by the trustees to draft an ordinance regulating the trimming of street trees and the heighth of telephone and telegraph poles. It would be well to include in this ordinance regulations governing the planting of street trees, their kind, care and generdl treatment, so as to secure uniformity and get a start on the proper basis.

* * *

July ushers in seasonably some properly heated summer weather, that warm sunshine which makes the corn and the alfalfa grow and gives to the unfortunate dwellers in cities a plenteous supply of succulent vegetables, luscious melons and fruits. It is the weather that makes the ice man and the cold drink dispenser happy and fills the purse of the merchant at the seaside resorts, whether he sells lodgings, eatables, cold drinks or clams. It is the kind of weather that makes cold water taste good and causes the heart of the drinker to bubble over with thankfulness for the plentifulness of that other (than sleep) "tired nature's sweet restorer," which a wholesome thirst makes good. But the heat of the day is not a bad price to pay for the beauty of our perfect nights, with the brilliant moonlight flooding that atmosphere of peace which fills all space between the mountains and the sea, when the mercury has gone down with the sun. Yes, the warm weather is all right, please hurry up that ice!

Because W. R. Hearst could not conceive the possibility of the people of New York City preferring another person to himself for mayor and insisted on a recount of votes, which resulted in no important change in the totals, Mayor McClellan was compelled to spend forty thousand dollars to defend his seat. The jnry fees alone amounted to over six thousand dollars. The cost to the state of New York and Hearst, to be equally divided, is from thirty-five to fifty thousand dollars.

The socialistic scheme of the recall would work out in a similar manner. The incumbent of an office would be liable at any time when any considerable body of his constituents considered him as misrepresenting them, to be compelled to defend the title to his seat.

Taft and the New York Sun

The attitude of the "capitalistic press" toward the respective nominees for president has been and continues to be interesting. The course of the New York Sun, supposed to be owned by J. Pierpont Morgan, has been well worth watching. A few months ago it announced that matters had been fixed so that Mr. Taft could not possibly secure the Republican nomination. And now that variable, but always interesting publication is speculating in a rather sympathetic vein, about what will happen "if he is elected." Apparently it is far from being irreconcilable. "One comforting thought attends upon a prophetic forecast of Mr. Taft's election, as president next November, which is that he will in all probability surround himself with men of gravity and consequence and high attainment." Then the Sun casts another cheering beam upon his fitness for the office:

"Mr. Taft's acquaintance with public men is very comprehensive. He has been in official life ever since he left the university and in national life for more than twenty years. He knows the heft and caliber of everyone north, south, east and west worth knowing, and both by temperament and the emergencies of his new service he will be prompted to an ingenious employment of that acquaintance." All of which indicates that the Sun is in quite a proper frame of mind. The arrangements to insure Mr. Taft's failure to get the nomination having miscarried, Mr. Morgan's talented journalists are coming around to the winning side with commendable celerity and neatness.

"What's in a Name?"

There comes to us semi-occasionally a copy of the Acton "Rooster," and the other day we received number one, volume one, of the Malheur "Booster," with a request to make favorable mention. We do this with pleasure. The Rooster is unique, but candor compels the confession that the Booster is uniquer. One of its principal and most apparent merits is that it rhymes with Rooster. It is not difficult to go into poetic esctacies over this mellifluous conjunction of choice captious. The man who cannot make a fetching rhyme out of this combination is a clod, indeed. For instance:

Oh the Rooster is a Booster
If he crows now as he uster.
Never was a Bird of Freedom
Gamey as the Acton Rooster.

Now, that is not bad; not nearly as bad as it might be. That is California, up in the Soledad Canyon, just a little ways north of us. But Oregon has the Malheur bird; list to its warble:

The Bird of Freedom sailed around,
In Oregon they loosed her;
The west coast has its Puget Sound,
But Malheur has its Booster.

Life is full of compensations: Jack has his Jill, the goose its gander, and after many years of lonely existence, looking in vain for a mate, the Acton Rooster at last has found its affinity and down the stream of time they may henceforth drift together, the Rooster and the Booster, hand in hand, cheek by jowl, keeping time to the music of their jingling names far flung upon the battlements of Fame.

Legalized Robbery

Mr. Dan Campbell has done the community some service in disclosing the methods of robbery practiced at one of the Los Angeles hospitals. There is good reason for believing that some of the other hospitals in Los Angeles are conducted along the same lines. Their object is by no means philanthropic and the unfortunate victim who falls into the clutches of this plunderbund, is an object of pity. He is charged a flat rate per week for a room and there seems to be nothing else allowed to go with it unless charged for as an "extra." It is a beautiful scheme and the working of it has made the hospitals of Los Angeles an immense success financially, for the stockholders. There is a crying need for free hospitals in Los Angeles; institutions such as are the rule in London, where any unfortunate in need of medical attendance and tender care, can receive it absolutely free. Perhaps after our philanthropists have endowed a few more free libraries where the reading public may be supplied with the "latest fiction" and other literature of more or less doubtful value, they will turn their attention to endowing a hospital or two where suffering humanity can find relief from their dire distresses. In the meantime we suggest that our hospitals be put under restrictions similar to the provisions of the pure food law. It should be made unlawful for them to be known as at present by such delusive titles as "Hospital of the Angel of Mercy," "Hospital of Our Pitying Mother," "The Hospital of the Holy Helpers," etc., and instead, over their gates should be such truthful legends as "The Hospital of Greed and Graft," "The Hospital of Associated Highwaymen" and "The Hospital of the Forty Thieves," with that sub title from Dante "All hope abandon ye who enter here."

To Our Subscribers and Others

As far as we can judge by the comments that have reached the editorial ear and by the substantial tokens of our subscription list and advertising patronage, everybody in our community is glad that there is but one newspaper in Glendale.

It is no longer necessary for the business man who comes to our city a stranger, to inquire when solicited for business, "which paper is this?" Nor in what part of town it is published.

All sections are represented in our advertising columns and in other departments of the paper. Nor is our ambition circumscribed by the official boundary of our city; we take a lively interest in the upbuilding of all our adjacent territory, whatever may be its local name and stand ready to assist in development and upbuilding in every direction. Some day we expect to see the territorial area of Glendale greatly enlarged; we are engaged in giving to adjacent territory an object lesson upon the advantages of incorporation (which alone can secure the benefits of home government) and are firmly convinced that other territory will be clamoring in the near future for participation in its benefits.

* * *

We have not tried to please everybody nor do we expect to make the effort. This does not imply that we do not care for the opinion of the community; on the contrary we value very highly the good opinion of our neighbors, but if to obtain it we have to advocate measures we do not believe to be desirable, or conceal our honest opinions in regard to matters political, religious, social or otherwise, then the price of that good opinion is more than we choose to pay.

* * *

A local newspaper is the one thing that a modern community cannot afford to do without. It serves to keep the members of the community in touch with one another; it educates them to the resources and the value of their surroundings and it advertises that community to the outside world; assuming, of course, that it is a newspaper conducted along lines broad enough to carry it beyond its immediate neighborhood, and it is a poor thing that has not the power to do this to at least some extent. It follows logically that the newspaper and its patrons are mutually dependent upon one another. If the paper does not stand for the best interests of the community in which it exists it cannot expect to prosper. But on the other hand if the community does not give liberal support to such a paper that community does not deserve the benefits of its service.

* * *

We hope that the new form in which the News appears will be acceptable to our patrons. The acquisition of a new press makes it possible for us to go to press earlier and to print our edition in one-tenth of the time heretofore required and at a proportionate reduction in labor. The consolidation of the two plants gives the News office one of the most complete establishments for publication and printing purposes, possessed by any weekly newspaper in Southern California.

We invite the co-operation of the public in our effort to publish a paper that will reflect credit upon the community in which it exists.

AN EXTRACT FROM THE BUILDING ORDINANCE.

By request we publish the following extract from Ordinance No. 42, regulating the construction, altering, repairing and removing of buildings in the city of Glendale:

Permit.

SECTION 3: It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, either as owner, architect or builder to commence or proceed with the erection, construction, alteration, removal, enlargement or repairs exceeding Twenty ($20.00) Dollars in cost, (restoration of plastering or painting excepted), of any building in the City of Glendale (other than buildings erected by the City of Glendale, the County of Los Angeles, the State of California or the United States,) unless a permit to do such work has been first obtained as herein provided.

The person, firm or corporation desiring such permit shall file with the Building Inspector, on a blank to be furnished by him, an application therefor, and with such application shall submit to him plans and specifications of the proposed work. Such application shall set forth the land upon which the proposed work is to be done, describing the same by lot and block, or other accurate description, the general description of the building to be erected, constructed altered, removed, enlarged or repaired, the number and heighth of the stories thereof, and the names of the owner, architect and contractor, and shall give an estimate of the cost of the proposed work, and the purpose for which such building is designed, and shall contain such other information as the Building Inspector may require. LINCOLN-ROOSEVELT REPUBLICAN LEAGUE.

Meeting Tuesday Evening Next at Odd Fellows Hall.

There will be a meeting of the local league next Tuesday evening at Odd Fellows Hall, Third and Glendale avenue, which will be addressed by Mr. R. W. Pridham, the gentleman who has been endorsed by the county executive committee of the league as its candidate for supervisor in this district. Our people should embrace this opportunity to see and hear Mr. Pridham, so that when the responsibility of making a choice for a nominee finally devolves upon them as it will at the time of the primary election, they will be able to do so intelligently and with at least some knowledge of the men who aspire to the position.

DEATH OF W. C. B. RICHARDSON.

One of the Oldest Pioneers of This Valley Passes Away at Tropico.

The oldest resident of this section and the oldest settler with but two or three possible exceptions, died at 1:30 Tuesday morning at his home in Tropico. Mr. Richardson has failed rapidly during the last year so that his passing was no surprise to his friends and the end was peaceful and comparatively painless. He was not entirely confined to bed but up to the day before his death sat up in a chair much of the time, retaining his mental faculties almost to the end. About a year ago he suffered some injury from a fall and seems not to have recovered from its effects. The body was interred in Grand View cemetery, Thursday afternoon last, beside that of his wife, and was followed by a large procession of friends and neighbors anxious to bear testimony to their apreciation of the distinct loss suffered by the community in which Mr. Richardson had lived so long, always an important factor in its development.

William C. B. Richardson was a member of the somewhat noted family of that name, both in Old and New England, contributing citizens of conspicuous ability to the State. He was born October 28th, 1815, at Swanzey, Keen county, New Hampshire. When a boy he removed to Ohio, becoming one of the pioneers of that State and received a common school education at Cuyahoga Falls. Working with his father, he became proficient as a surveyor, which profession he followed for forty years in Cleveland. At the time of his death he was still possessed of valuable property in that city. He was a successful business man of strictest probity and being farsighted in business affairs was successful in his investments so that the estate which he leaves is one of great value. One of his best investments was made when in 1868 he came to Los Angeles county and purchased the Santa Eulalia Rancho, comprising 671 acres. From this property at Tropico a number of donations have been made for public purposes, a site for the S. P. depot, the Tropico Art Tile factory, etc., being among them. He has added some other acres, however, so that the estate today must consist of at least 700 acres of valuable land aligning the Los Angeles river and the San Fernando road, in addition to some hill land nearby.

During his residence in Cleveland he was for two terms a member of the common council and was active in municipal affairs, at the same time being engaged in the coal business with his son, O. S. Richardson. He married in 1838 at Akron, Ohio, Miss Sarah Everett, who died in 1895. Three children, sons, survive, O. S. of Chicago; Elkanah W. and Bert W., of Tropico.

Mr. Richardson was a Mason and a member of the Society of Pioneers of Los Angeles and of the Historical Society of this county.

Mr. Richardson will be sadly missed in the community which he had seen grow up about the spot he chose for a home, every portion of which was dear to him. He lived the life of good citizenship, taking an active interest in all current events, and was always ready to assist a needy neighbor or a worthy common cause.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY E. PATTERSON.

Another Old-Timer Passes Away.

The many friends of Mrs. Patterson were shocked at learning on Monday last that she was hopelessly ill. She had been ailing for a week or two, but the serious result was not anticipated until it became apparent on Monday that the end was near. She lingered until Wednesday, evening, in an unconscious condition most of that time. The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, her pastor, Rev. S. Lawrence Ward officiating.

Mrs. Patterson had been for many years a member of the N. P. Banks Relief Corps, the members of which attended the funeral in a body. It was due to their efforts principally that the church was so appropriately and profusely decorated with choice flowers, although many friends sent in beautiful testimonials of spray and blossom.

The church was crowded with neighbors and friends and a large procession followed the remains to their resting place in Forest Lawn cemetery, Tropico. Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Patterson was born January 4, 1848, at Blairstown, N. J. She married B. F. Patterson on December 24, 1868, at Melpire, Muscatine County, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson were among the first of a half dozen families coming to Glendale in 1883, and Mrs. Patterson has ever since that time taken an active part in church and philanthropic work. The circle of friends among whom she lived and worked will be conscious for a good while to come of a gap that cannot easily be filled.

The sympathy of the community goes out to her husband and children. She left the record of a life well spent.

At the cemetery the ladies of the Relief Corps conducted the services according to the beautiful ritual of the order. The Tropico quartette sang "Sweet Hour of Prayer," and covered deep with a wreath of bloom, the casket was lowered to place under the green sward of Forest Lawn.

THE USUAL RUNAWAY.

One interesting and valuable characteristic of the city's fire and general utility horse, is his dependableness; he can be depended on to run away about once a week, thus furnishing us a good, reliable item and adding to the attractiveness of our town. The small town where there are no dog fights, runaways or fires, is dead, unpleasantly dead and hopeless. We are not in that condition this summer. The latest scene of the fire horse's exploits was Louise street, north of Fourth, the time, Monday last or thereabouts. Events move so rapidly here that time is a matter of uncertainty. It may have been last week—but it was. In the first place the horse was purchased for a fire horse, and to hitch him to a dirt wagon to haul off the refuse of the city streets, is an indignity that no thoroughbred would submit to—he ought to be liberally provided with fires, which he isn't. The city marshal stood at the animal's head, which was evidently not the right place, for the animal bumped him away right speedily and made a dash for freedom. He turned on to Fourth street and swept wildly up that thoroughfare, dashing through a long and intricate line of vehicles, missing some of them narrowly. Making the turn from Fourth street up Glendale avenue, he aimed directly for the door of the livery barn where he condescends to reside in his hours of ease, but an unappreciative and inhospitable attendant slammed the door in his face and there he was! Next week a new program is promised and our reporter has a reserved seat.

THE DEADLY GASOLINE.

Mrs. Emma Hammond the Victim of a Painful Accident.

Tuesday afternoon while Mrs. Emma Hammond of First and Howard street was filling a gasoline stove reservoir, with the stove still burning, the inflammable fluid ignited quite naturally and burned Mrs. Hammond severely on the arm and about the shoulders.

Fortunately for Mrs. Hammond, her brother, Emmet Chatnam, was near at hand and was successful in smothering the flames promptly. Neighbors rendered prompt assistance and the fire was put out before any serious damage was done to the house.

Mrs. Hammond's injuries are painful and will probably render her arm useless for quite a while. As she is dependent upon the labor of her hands for the support of herself and family, some of our citizens responded promptly and liberally to an appeal which was put in circulation at once for her financial relief.

CLOSE BIDDING.

By reference to the report of the city engineer on the bids for the improvement of Everett street, it will be seen that as between Contractors McCombs and Mock, there is a difference in favor of the latter of exactly three cents on the job. Street work in Glendale is certainly down to a bed rock basis when this close figuring is possible.

POPULAR SCIENCE.

THE NEBULAR THEORY.

(Concluded from last week)

We have thus seen how this wonderful theory was conceived in the brain of Kant, and mathematically demonstrated by Laplace fifty years later. We now come to a third stage in its remarkable history. It was originally propounded to account for the Solar System only; and neither Kant nor Laplace ever saw a Nebula. It was therefore not thought possible to obtain ocular demonstration to support it. It remained for another genius in the person of Sir William Herschell to extend the theory to the evolution of "all the starry host of heaven" by his splendid discovery of thousands of nebulas in every direction. Viewing the heavens through his telescopes, with his illustrious sister, he perceived that every intermediate grade of Nebula could be found between that which appeared a mere faint stain of light, and that hardly distinguishable from a star with a halo of light around it. Here again, however, there was room for doubt, for although Herschell imagined he saw Nebulae in his telescopes, it was not certain whether with higher powers they might not all be resolved into stars as had so often been the case before. It was not till nearly half a century later that the spectroscope finally decided the nature of these mysterious objects. In 1864 Sir William Huggins established as a fact, beyond doubt, that the so-called Nebulae are not star-clusters at all, but gigantic volumes of incandescent gas. The spectroscope also revealed the great fact that the sun was composed of substantially the same material as the earth, and as the stars were examined in turn with this wonderful instrument, they were all found to have practically the same composition. This unity of nature constitutes a crowning argument in favor of the great theory.

It will thus be understood how strong a claim the Nebular theory has on our credence when we consider that three such giants of the human intellect — Kant, the philosopher; Laplace, mathematician, and Herschell, the keen-eyed observer, all arrived at the same conclusion with respect to the origin of this wonderful scheme of nature we call the Solar System, and the stellar universe. To quote Sir Robert Ball on this point: "That three different men of science, approaching the study of perhaps the greatest problem which nature offers us, from points of view so fundamentally different, should have been led substantially to the same result, is a remarkable incident in the history of knowledge. Surely the theory introduced under such auspices and sustained by such a weight of testimony has the very strongest claim on our attention and respect."

Verily truth is stronger than "fiction," and the unfolding of the marvelous history of nature is more romantic than the highest flights of the novelist, more absorbing than the fairest fairy tale. And were we inclined to be pessimistic by reason of the comparatively insignificant position occupied by man in the great scheme of nature, the inception, elaboration and demonstration of this grand Nebular theory might serve to remind us that though encased in temporary clay, the human intellect transcends time and space, reaching even to the throne of the great originator of all things.

RESOLUTION NO. 164

RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE CITY OF GLENDALE ORDERING CERTAIN STREET WORK TO BE DONE ON BRAND BOULEVARD.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale do resolve as follows:

Section 1. That the street work herein described is required by the public interest and convenience, and the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, State of California, hereby orders the same to be done according to the specifications and plans adopted for said work, and under the direction and to the satisfaction of the superintendent of streets of said city, to-wit:

First: That, that portion of the roadway of Brand Boulevard from the Southerly line of Fifth street to the Southerly city boundary line of the City of Glendale, including all intersections of streets (excepting such portion of said street and intersections as are required by law to be kept in order or repair by any person or company having railroad tracks thereon) be graded, tamped and oiled in accordance with the plans and profiles on file in the office of the City Engineer, and Specifications for the grading and oiling and tamping of streets on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Glendale, said Specifications being numbered 9, except that instead of following that portion of said Specifications contained on page 2 of said Specifications under the heading of constructing gutter, sprinkling and oiling which reads as follows: "The roadway shall be coated evenly with the oil at the rate of three gallons per square yard of surface covered This shall be thoroughly cultivated in until the oil is well mixed with the soil to a depth of five (5) inches. The roadway shall then be tamped with a tamping roller until the bottom two and one-half (2½) inches are solid. The roadway shall then be re crowned with a road grader, again thoroughly sprinkled with water until the top two and one-half (2½) inches are evenly dampened. The second coat of oil, amounting to one gallon per square yard of surface covered, shall then be applied and cultivated in as aforesaid, to a depth of two and one-half (2½) inches. Then the roadway shall again be tamped with a tamping roller until the entire surface of the roadway is uniformly hard and smooth and without undulations or irregularities in the surface. After said tamping there shall be applied a third coat of oil amounting to one-half gallon per square yard of surface covered."

The following provisions are to be followed in lieu of said specifications No. 9:

The roadway shall be coated evenly with the oil at the rate of three (3) gallons per square yard of surface covered, which shall be applied in the following manner:

At this time it may be well to mention the far-reaching benefits to Glendale resulting from the general movement during the year past in the matter of permanent street improvement. Our citizens have shown a commendable and public-spirited attitude in that, notwithstanding a period of decreasing activity in the realty and building lines, they have not slackened the pace set in the beginning of our incorporate existence; but have gone steadily forward with petition after petition for the improvement of our streets, and when the work now assured is completed, the dust paths lined with dirty weeds which formerly were designated as streets will be the exception, and the rule will be finely graded, oiled and sanded thoroughfares, without dust or weeds, pleasing to the eye, pleasing to travel over, and a monument to progress. A list of the street improvements taken up during the year under the Vrooman act is appended, with approximate length of each:

July 17, 1907.—Fifth street; Glendale avenue to Verdugo road; 3,900 feet.

July 31, 1907.—Fifth street; Central avenue to Glendale avenue; 2,800 feet.

Aug. 7, 1907.—Eomita avenue; Central avenue to Glendale avenue; 2,300 feet.

Aug. 14, 1907.—Third street; Brand boulevard to easterly line of Childs tract; 4,500 feet.

Sept. 18, 1907.—First street; Glendale avenue to Verdugo road; 2,300 feet.

Sept. 18, 1907.—Second street; Adams street to Verdugo road; 1,650 feet.

Oct. 23, 1907.—Chestnut street; Glendale avenue to Central avenue; 2,100 feet.

Oct. 23, 1907.—Ninth street; Glendale avenue to Adams street; 2,750 feet.

Oct. 30, 1907.—Fourth street; Adams street to Glendale avenue; 1,500 feet.

March 25, 1908.—Cedar street; Third street to Sixth street; 1,900 feet.

April 1, 1908.—Seventh street; Central avenue to Brand boulevard; 750 feet.

April 8, 1908.—Adams street; First street to southerly city limits; 5,650 feet.

April 8, 1908.—Glendale avenue; Sixth street to southerly city limits; 2,450 feet.

April 15, 1908.—Everett street; Third street to Sixth street; 1,900 feet.

May 13, 1908.—Brand boulevard; Fifth street to southerly city limits; 2,900 feet.

May 13, 1908.—Louise street; Second street to Ninth street; 4,500 feet.

July 1, 1908.—Second street; Glendale avenue to Central avenue; 3,550 feet.

Petitions for the improvement of Lomita avenue, Glendale avenue to Adams street, and all of Orange Grove avenue, are now before the Board of Trustees, with at least one other being circulated.

Respectfully submitted.

G. B. WOODBERRY,
City Clerk.

THANKFUL TO GET HOME AGAIN.

Rev. M. M. Eshelman Returns from an Eastern Trip and Talks About Cyclones and Things.

We met our old friend Rev. M. M. Eshelman, formerly of Tropico, on the street in Los Angeles, the other day. Mr. Eshelman has just returned from a visit to Kansas and Nebraska. Just before leaving Kansas he visited the scene of the cyclone that struck the Northeastern corner of the State on June 15th. He speaks in a most interesting manner of the phenomena to be observed in the wake of the storm. Houses and hay stacks seemed to be particularly immune, but barns and live stock were swept off the earth. The cyclone moved so slowly that the people had no great difficulty in escaping from the narrow track of its destructive force. In about a month spent in the Missouri river country, Mr. Eshelman says there were but half a dozen days that were free from thunder storms of more or less severity. He is more than ever enthusiastic about California nd has his eyes upon Glendale for a home site for himself and family.

GARDEN PARTY AND SUPPER.

St. Marks Guild of the Episcopal Church gives a garden party and supper at the home of Mrs. Penn, on Adams street between Fourth and Fifth this afternoon, from 4 to 8 o'clock, which promises to be a very enjoyable affair. Supper will be served from 6 to 8, price 25 cents. There will be a candy and ice cream booth and a fish pond to amuse the children and others. The pleasant grounds will be made doubly attractive by the hospitable reception by the ladies of the guild of all comers who are hereby and otherwise invited.

Mrs. C. L. Baum, a prominent club and society woman of Denver, Colo., is the house guest of Mrs. Charles Scheu of "Los Flores."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Richardson, little daughter and maid are visiting in Santa Paula, the guests of Mr. Richardson's parents.

Mrs. James R. Maxwell and Miss Cora Hickman visited Prof. and Mrs. William Malcom and other friends at El Monte the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Ayres returned Saturday from a two months' delightful visit in Des Moines, other points of interest in Iowa, Missouri and Colorado.

Mrs. Albert Harris and young daughter, of San Fernando, who have been the guests of Mrs. Harris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Light of Tropico avenue, returned home the first of the week.

Mrs. Rose Leech, of Park avenue, entertained a coterie of her daughter Dorothy's young friends and playmates at her home Tuesday evening in compliment to Miss Dorothy's fourteenth anniversary.

The regular meeting of N. P. Banks Woman's Relief Corps was postponed Friday afternoon and the Corps attended in a body the funeral ceremonies of Mrs. Mary Patterson, a dearly beloved member of the Corps.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Ayres, of Tropico, who, by the way, are among the oldest residents of our valley, have just returned from a two months' visit to their old home in Iowa. They visited the birthplace of Mr. Ayres at Springfield where he was born in 1835 and found the log cabin succeeded by a structure of brick. Visiting a brother there Mr. Ayres made the acquaintance of a bunch of nephews and nieces whom he had never seen, and two of whom are married. At Sioux City he found Mr. George Ware still in the banking business, just as he was in 1857 when Mr. Ayres acted as his clerk, only at that time the bank was in a log building. They visited Des Moines, Dakota City, Omaha, Ft. Madison and other places with which they were acquainted thirty years ago and on their return stopped a week or so at Colorado City, where they were the guests of Dr. Sinclair who has frequently visited them in Tropico.

FIRE CALL AT TROPICO.

The burning of the home of Mr. C. F. Richardson last week aroused the community to a sense of their helpless condition in the event of fire and a number of prominent citizens met at Logan's Hall Tuesday evening to discuss the subject.

After a discussion of the matter an organization was formed of which Mr. F. C. Richardson is secretary, to take steps in some direction that will result in doing something for the benefit of the community in case of fire. The discussion assumed a rather wide range and the question of municipal incorporation and of annexation to Los Angeles or Glendale, was discussed.

A number of speakers pointed out the advantages secured in Glendale by incorporation and the question of annexation to that growing city was seriously debated. The sentiment in favor of annexation to Los Angeles is decidedly on the wane. The signs of the times point to an amalgamation with Glendale at no very distant day.

A NEW DEPARTURE BY THE PRESBYTERIANS.

Next Sabbath evening the Presbyterian Church will make a new departure. The well-known musician, Mr. Earl Bishop Valentine, has taken charge of the music for Sunday evening in the future. There will be an orchestra and a chorus choir. The rehearsal on Wednesday evening was enthusiastic and good music is assured.

There will be a song service at 7:45 following the C. E. service, and at 8:00 the regular evening service.

The pastor of the church will preach a short sermon on "The Fact—Jesus Christ." A cordial invitation is made to the public to participate in the interesting service of Sabbath evening. The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be observed in the church next Sabbath morning.

The Methodists and Presbyterians are planning for a combined Sabbath school picnic at Long Beach on July 22d. There will be a special train on the Salt Lake road. Round trip fare fifty cents. Look for the further announcements.

Mrs. Musser, of the Wing ranch, had her hand-bag stolen on the 4th. Mrs. Musser was away from home at the time, but the boys were home and the supposition is that it was the work of a sneak thief. The bag contained a sum of money and a gold watch.

An open-air mothers' meeting will be held in connection with the W. C. T. U. Friday, July 17th, at 2:30 p.m. Subject: "A Cheerful Home." The meeting will be held on the M. E. church ground. Every mother is earnestly requested to be present. Refreshments will be served.

AT THE COUNTRY CLUB.

The Ladies' Auxiliary have invitations out for an entertainment at the club house Monday afternoon next. Military whist is to be one of the features, with refreshments and other social features. The dancing class on Monday evenings has become a feature of the club work, and is looked forward to with pleasure by all participants. The older men of the club, whose early education in the art was neglected, are making up for lost time with a vim that makes the youngsters envious. The efforts of the learners are well worth seeing, but they are succeeding remarkably.

CONTRIBUTION TO THE FIRE BOYS.

Mr. Van L. Denton and his associates, owners of the buildings on the northwest corner of Fourth and Glendale avenue, one of which was badly damaged by fire last Monday morning, have made a gift of fifty dollars to the Glendale Fire Department in token of their appreciation of the good work done in saving the bulk of their property on the occasion of the fire.

ANOTHER SERIOUS ACCIDENT BY FIRE.

Mrs. Ackley, residing on Columbus avenue, in the Vineyard tract, was seriously burned on Thursday morning about the hands and arms by flames from a defective distillate burner. A leak in the pipe is supposed to be the responsible cause. Dr. R. E. Chase dressed the patient's wounds which he reports painful, but not serious.

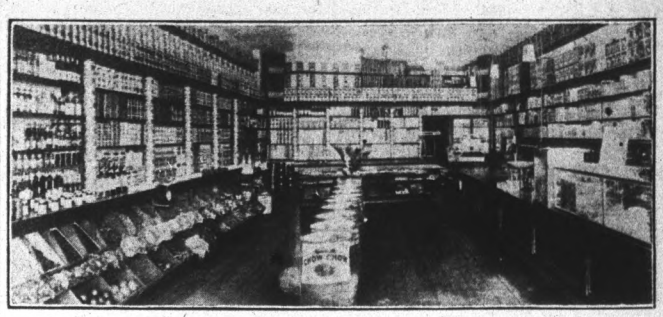
One of the many indications that Glendale is attracting attention from the outside is a very nice article in the Commerce Bulletin commenting on one of our local stores, which we reproduce below.



"A Little Store Well Filled" is the catch phrase used by Shaver Bros., Glendale. This store, which is illustrated above, is a model of neatness, convenient arrangement, and economy in cost of fixtures. It is a plain narrow storeroom. On the right hand side of the front is one double show case—the only one in the store. Beyond the show case on the right is a counter which being "L" shaped also runs across the back of the store. Instead of the usual bleak partition or wall in the rear this space is utilized with shelves well filled. On the other side there are no counters—simply an open display of goods which the prospective buyer can see at close range and if she desires can be her own salesman, picking out the goods she wants and carrying them across to the counter on the other side. The bins shown in the picture were made by cracker boxes, the boxes being cut diagonally at one end and built up in two tiers with a long smooth board dividing them. Being simply cracker boxes they can be moved at will. In the center of the comparatively narrow store is a row of carefully scrubbed barrels, each barrel covered with an enamel ware dish pan in which the goods are displayed. Since the picture was taken a further improvement has been added in the center of the store a wooden saddle built to fit over the barrels and which is used to advantage for the display of green veegtables and fruits. Unusual care is taken in the neat display of goods. Every can or bottle is lined up uniformly and every board dividing the sections of the shelves is hidden by a pillar of canned fruit. All of the fixtures are plain and inexpensive, yet care in arranging stock gives to the store a distinctive rich appearance.

The Shaver Fourth of July show windows are the talk of Glendale and the San Fernando valley. Many hours of work were put on them and they attracted much attention. Cecil Shaver, head of the company, originated the designs. The work was done in red, white and blue colored sugar. In the right hand window two flags and a shield were built of this coloring sugar and inclined at a slight elevation on the floor of the show window. A picture each of Washington, Lincoln and Roosevelt also was used and the whole floor of the show window was carpeted with coffee and spider leg tea. Spelled in lima beans on this carpet were the dates July 4, 1908-1776.

On a pedestal above was perched a stuffed eagle from whose claws were carried red, white and blue ribbons.

In the other window the same methods were used, one large flag being worked with colored sugar and the floor carpeted with rice, lima beans, pink beans and split peas, each in separate sections. Spelled out with lima beans was the motto: "A Battleship for Every Star."

In each window was a neat sign: "We close all day July 4."

Mr. Shaver is a young man who has had many years experience at the head of large grocery houses. He was for several years the buyer for Hockheimer & Co., the big Bakersfield department store.
